

J. PERCY PAGE
HIGH SCHOOL

WE AIM FOR GREATNESS

2017-18 YEARBOOK

Who Was J. Percy Page?

John Percy Page, also known as J. Percy Page, (May 14, 1887-March 2, 1973) was an educator, basketball coach, politician, and the eighth Lieutenant Governor of Alberta. He attended Oakville Junior High School, Hamilton Collegiate Institute, Ontario Normal School, and Queen's University. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Queen's University and a Bachelor of Commercial Science degree from the American Institute of Business. In 1914, Mr. Page was hired to teach commercial courses at MacDougall Commercial High School. He was also responsible for the girls' physical education classes. An avid basketball player in his youth, Mr. Page decided to include this rapidly growing sport in the physical education program and became the senior girls' basketball coach. The girls took quickly to the game and the result was the Edmonton Grads basketball team. The Grads dominated world women's basketball from 1915 to 1940. Mr. Page trained the girls to play as a unit and take their sport seriously. He was fondly known as "Papa" to many of his players. Though the team's roster changed over the course of their 25 years of play, one person remained constant - Percy Page. He built this extraordinary team and coached it from beginning to the end of its glorious tenure. Before retiring from teaching in 1952, he would be a Principal at two Edmonton high schools. In 1955, he was inducted into Canada's Sports Hall of Fame as a basketball builder. Mr. Page left the world of coaching in pursuit of a political career. He was elected to the Legislative Assembly of Alberta from 1940 to 1948 and again from 1952 to 1959. From 1957 to 1959, he was also a trustee of the Edmonton Public School Board. He then served as Lieutenant Governor of Alberta from 1959 to 1966. In 1961, he was made a Knight of Grace of the Most Venerable Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem and he was also awarded an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree from the University of Alberta. In 1984, J. Percy Page High School in Edmonton, named in his honor, opened its doors.

J. Percy Page.
